What is Jr. Oly Youth Basketball?

Jr. Oly Youth Basketball is a non-profit, youth basketball organization that was founded to serve the needs of the student-athletes inside of the Sprague Youth Basketball Community. The Jr. Olys provide 4th - 8th graders a chance to play on tournament teams against some of the best competition in the state of Oregon. During this time student-athletes will receive high level coaching, skill development training, and exposure to the Sprague High School Program. The Jr. OLY Youth Program will also be offering to put together recreational teams to compete and practice locally (1st-3rd graders).

Senior Grayson Long (#3) was a former Junior OLY Basketball Player. He was a 2nd Team All CVC Selection in 2023.

Benefits of Jr. Oly Youth Basketball

- Develop as a basketball player through elite skill development and athleticism training ran through our Partnership with “The PAC”.
- Compete against a high level of competition from around the state through tournament play
- Be exposed to Sprague High School Basketball terminology, skill development, and practice training techniques
- Be allowed to sit behind the bench of Sprague Basketball games, meet Sprague Basketball Players, and become a water boy/girl for the Sprague Hoops Program.
- Includes: 2 practices a week, with skill development/athletic development sessions provided by Paid Trainers at “The Pac”
- Includes: 6 tournaments
- Includes: Jr. Oly Basketball Uniform and shooting shirt
- Includes: Access to Sprague Basketball Boys or Girls Program (See above)
