What is Jr. Oly Youth Basketball?

Jr. Oly Youth Basketball is a non-profit, youth basketball organization that was founded to serve the needs of the student-athletes inside of the Sprague Youth Basketball Community. The Junior Olys provide 3rd - 8th graders a chance to play on tournament teams against some of the best competition in the state of Oregon. During this time student-athletes will receive high level coaching, skill development training, and exposure to the Sprague High School Program.

Senior Dallon Morgan (#22) was a former Junior OLY Basketball Player. He was a first team all Valley League Selection in 2021 and 2022. As well as a member of the ALL State Team.

Benefits of Jr. Oly Youth Basketball

- Be held accountable for behavior on and off the court
- Develop as a basketball player through elite skill development and athleticism training ran through our Partnership with "The PAC".
- Compete against a high level of competition from around the state through tournament play
- Be exposed to Sprague High School Basketball terminology, skill development, and practice training techniques
- Be allowed to sit behind the bench of Sprague Basketball games, meet Sprague Basketball Players, and become a water boy/girl for the Sprague Hoops Program.
- Includes: 2 practices a week, with skill development/athletic development sessions provided by Paid Trainers at "The Pac/Youth Stars Basketball"
- Includes: 6 tournaments played in (some teams may choose to play less - cost will go down if this occurs)
- Includes: Jr. Oly Basketball Uniform and shooting shirt
- Includes: Access to Sprague Basketball Boys or Girls Program (See above)
